

American Embassy, Doha

Vacancy Announcement

SUBJECT: JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT - ENGINEER (CIVIL),
FSN-10 (FP-05), U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS, TWO POSITIONS

1. Embassy Doha has an immediate vacancies for two Engineer (Civil) positions to work in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Post appreciates assistance from addressee posts in advertising this vacancy among its staff. This position is classified at the FSN-10 (FP-05) grade level. This position lasts for two years, and it may be renewed one year at a time, should there be additional projects.

2. Basic function of position:

The incumbent is responsible for the construction management, technical engineering support, and quality assurance on major construction projects being performed in Qatar by the Corps of Engineers. Projects provide construction of facilities to include airfields and lighting systems, maintenance hangars and other specialized facilities, office buildings, training facilities, storage buildings, and infrastructure work such as roads, electrical, water, and sewer distribution systems. Serves as Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) for construction management of assigned contracts.

3. Required qualifications:

A bachelor's or higher degree in civil, electrical, mechanical engineering, or architecture is required; a minimum of six years experience in multi-disciplinary engineering fields (civil, electrical, and mechanical), including experience on U.S. designed and constructed facilities utilizing U.S. standards and specifications is required; Level III (good working knowledge) speaking and reading English is required; must have thorough professional knowledge in engineering design and construction; must be familiar with the construction and design codes such as the ASTM; computer skills in Microsoft office and scheduling are required.

4. Employment information: This is a full-time Personal Services Agreement (PSA) position.

5. Salary and benefits:

Salary for Grade FSN-10 Step 01:
Rate of Exchange: US $ 1.00 = QRS 3.64
Basic Rate: QRS 171,536.00
Transportation Allowance: QRS 4,600
Housing Allowance: QRS 93,200
Miscellaneous Allowance (Accompanied) QRS 12,860
Miscellaneous Allowance (Unaccompanied) QRS 7,060
End of Year Bonus: 1/12th of annual basic salary payable to employee each year with earnings of pay period 24.
Homeward passage allowance to the nearest airport of home on record for employee and eligible dependents, i.e., legal spouse who resides in Qatar and has a residency permit, and a maximum of three unmarried, dependent children under the age of 19 who has a residency permit is authorized after every one year of service.
Post provides life insurance coverage for the employee and medical insurance coverage for the employee and eligible dependents.
Employee will be eligible to join post's Locally Employed Staff Provident Fund Plan after successful completion of a six-month probationary period. The Plan allows the contribution of 5 percent of basic salary by the employee, which will be matched, by a 5 percent U.S. Government contribution.

6. Please send a completed application for employment, Form SF-171, to:

HRODoha@state.gov

Closing date for submitting applications is May 23, 2010.